

Elephant and Friends

Let's Begin

Join the dots and colour the picture.

Chotu is an elephant.
He is sad.

He sees a monkey on a tree.

Then, Chotu meets a rabbit.

Chotu sees a frog.

Chotu is very sad. No one wants to play with him. The next day, he sees all the animals running away from the forest.

A few minutes later,
the tiger comes that way.

The tiger is scared
and he runs away!

Slowly, all the animals come back.

Now Chotu has many friends.

Let's Understand

A. Answer these questions.

1. Who is Chotu?
2. Why are the animals running away from the forest?
3. What does Chotu say to the tiger?

B. Say if these statements are true (T) or not true (NT).

1. Chotu was sad because he did not have friends.
2. The monkey said he would be Chotu's friend.
3. Chotu was too big to play in the rabbit's burrow.
4. Chotu was scared of the tiger.
5. The animals thanked Chotu for helping them.

Let's Think

Why do the monkey, the rabbit and the frog tell Chotu they cannot play with him? Discuss with your teacher.

Let's Listen

FA

while-listening task

Listen to some animal friends talk to you. As you listen, look at these pictures and circle the correct animal. Say what animal it is.

Know Your Values

being friendly

In the story, the animals will not be friends with Chotu the Elephant because he is different from them.

Is this the correct way to behave?

We should be friendly with everyone. We should not treat people badly just because they look different from us.

Let's Speak

greeting

Read these conversations.

Now, practise greeting each other.
